Special Assistant to Secretary of War Makes Several Speeches in Day's Stay Here, Under Auspices of Y. M. C. A. And Negro Business League

Says He Is Not An Apologist for the War Department, and If Democracy Is Not A Sham And A Hypocrisy It Must Be For The Negro As Well As The White Man.

Hon. Emmet J. Scott, Assistant Secretary of War, arrived in St. Louis at 7:30 Wednesday morning, May 8, and departed at 11:30 p. m., for Indianapolis.

Upon his arrival he was immediately ushered to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Malone, 3100 Pine Street, where he was greeted by a number of business and professional men of the city. After breakfast, which was served in the beautiful dining room at Piro College, a committee from the local Negro Business League, headed by Mr. J. C. Williams, 1100 Pine Street, where he was greeted by a number of business and professional men of the city.
